AMUSEMENT NOTES.Howe's Pictures March 29.

Those who enjoy travel most are those who travel much whether by boat or rail or with Lyman H. Howe via his Travel Festival. However, "Howe's travelers" enjoy an advantage which actual travelers do not, because their pleasure is not marred by poor hotel accommodations, late trains, bad weather or the annoyances caused by baggage quarantine or customs officials.

The range of interests represented in the new program which will be shown at the Auditorium Saturday, March 29, is as wide as human nature itself. It contains many comparisons which are striking, especially for Americans who, living in an environment that is modern to the last degree, can appreciate all the more the strange scenes of foreign lands that are not as progressive as our own. Such reproductions cultivate the power of observation. This in turn awakens latent ideas and inspires new thoughts, for the more one sees the more accurately one thinks. For these reasons an exhibition like Mr. Howe's does more to develop and broaden one's outlook than any other before the American public. Like a living newspaper it pictures the whole earth before our eyes, and speaks in a universal language that everyone can understand. By its magical powers it makes spectators feel the truth of what they witness, and therefore it is much more enduring than if it was conveyed by words because the memory of the eyes far outlives the memory of the ears.

CHANCE BOSSES CHASE.Basketball Player Now Boxer—Daly To Coach Williams at Football.

Murray Parker, one of the "greatest of them all" with Springfield, but who plumped, to put it very mildly, has again signed with the Ponies and declares that he is the "best ever" this year. Springfield hopes so.

The track material at Harvard this season is rated as tip top and strong hopes are held out that the crimson will "do things" to Yale and the other colleges who will be met this season in that branch of sport.

"Jack" Harding of Holyoke, an old basketball player, is now beginning to shine as a boxer. He is booked to meet "Young" Dobbins of Glens Falls, N. Y., in a ten-round go at Westfield Easter Monday night. Basketball as some play it is good training for the ring.

Fred Daly, the old Yale player and coach, who has made good football eleven at Williams for the last two years, has been engaged as coach for this fall and Williams alumni and undergraduates are all happy. Daly is not only successful in his coaching work, but very popular with all of the college as well.

Anyone who goes in for swimming at Columbia university must learn to rescue drowning persons. That is making sport practical as well as mere sport.

Hal Chase, former manager of the Yankees, took a chance with Manager Chance the other night and showed up a half hour late at headquarters. Chance told him he had one more chance to try if he wanted to settle for $200.

McGraw has begun to weed out Evers, Robertson, Kirby and Torrey are slated for the minors at once.

McGraw may figure that Thorpe is a big drawing card and worth carrying on the payroll as such. From this distance it does not appear that he will ever appear as a regular in the lineup of the Giants.

In a game between the Highlanders and Jersey City at Bernuda the other day Davis, the former Williams college twirler, pitched five innings. He fanned 10, passed six and allowed three hits.

Jack Pappalau, the veteran pitcher, has signed with Troy.

Gandil, Washington's first baseman, has been sent to Washington to consult a specialist about a severe case of lumbago.

The Vermont Printing Company*SOUTHERN PART OF*VILLAGE GROWING*Community Numbers About 300 Persons

—Holden & Martin to Erect New Store for Ainsworth and Martell.

Comparatively few persons realize what a community has sprung up at Fort Dummer Heights and the southern part of South Main street since the erection of the Fort Dummer cotton mill and other buildings in that locality. There are now about 300 persons in that section of the town, and the number is increasing steadily.

Enoch Ainsworth and Frank Martell, two residents of that locality, have seen a business opportunity there and are taking advantage of it. For some time they have operated a small grocery store at Fort Dummer Heights, and now they have arranged to start another store near the end of the street railroad line.

They have bought a building lot of Holden & Martin, the last lot to the south on the east side of the street, and have contracted with Holden & Martin to build a store with tenement overhead. The construction work will be begun soon and it is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy in June. Ainsworth and Martell will operate both stores.

GAVE PLEASING SONG RECITAL.Miss Helen Arnold Nettleton Soloist at Woman's Club Musical.

Miss Lillian Arnold Nettleton of Derby, Conn., a widely-known contralto soloist, gave a song recital in the Centre Congregational church last evening, for the Brattleboro Woman's club. The Scotch melodies which opened the program were very pleasing. My Laddie being given with true Scotch spirit. Miss Nettleton's voice was at its best in the group of German songs which came second on the program. These she gave with a great deal of feeling. In the Indian group, which included four unusual songs, she brought out the peculiar pathos and deep feeling which always runs through Indian music. In the last group, A Lullaby by Hamilton was repeated because of the enthusiastic applause of the audience.

Miss Nettleton's voice is of a rich quality, with a good range, and she sings with feeling and shows much cultivation. Her personality is charming. Miss Maude Van Ness Bradley was a very sympathetic accompanist.

FUNERAL OF CEYLON S. DAVIS.

Was Son of Amos Davis and One of Family of 16 Members.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Davis of Vernon attended the funeral, at Melrose, Mass., yesterday, of Ceylon S. Davis, eldest brother of Mr. Davis, who died March 16. The family of Amos Davis, father of Ceylon S. and Charles E., have held several of their recent annual reunions in Vernon, the last in 1911. Of this large, old-fashioned family of 16 members, the father and three sons fought in the Civil war. Charles E. is now the last of the veterans surviving, but five brothers and two sisters are still living. The deceased was an uncle of Mrs. A. D. Reynolds of Brattleboro.

BRATTLEBORO LOCAL.

Dr. J. R. Gow will conduct the chapel service at the Retreat Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A flock of wild geese was seen Sunday afternoon going south. That predicts cold weather throughout April according to old-time prophecies.

The next regular meeting of the Sunshine society, branch one, will be held with Mrs. G. F. Barber, High street, Friday, March 28, at 3.30 o'clock.

Joseph Watson of Hinsdale, a carpenter, has bought a house of E. M. Holden on Clark avenue. The house is nearly completed and Mr. Watson will move there next week.

P. F. Crown has sold his house at 27 Pine street to W. T. Wentworth, a conductor on the street railroad, who will move there at once. The house has been occupied by W. H. Dettinger, who has moved away.

The Speed Boys and the Flat Street Stars will meet at Buzzell's alleys tonight in the deciding match, each team having won from the other. A good match will be seen as the Flat Street Stars have been strengthened by new men.

The ice in the Connecticut which had been jammed since Sunday afternoon again started out just after 7 o'clock this morning, the mild weather of yesterday with the rain of this morning having proved too much for the ice to withstand. A large quantity of driftwood was noticeable in the ice this morning. The water in the river has lowered materially since Sunday and the current is by no means as strong as it was during the time the ice was moving Sunday.

Workmen yesterday took down the poles that supported the wires on the east side of the railroad tracks north of Whetstone arch. These poles stood in the middle of the new track which has been laid for the purpose of providing a spot for the dumping of waste from the railroad cut on the Hinsdale shore. The wires which were supported by these poles were removed to the poles on the west side of the tracks and temporarily hung there.

Easter in the Boot Shop

Every Part of the Store is Aglow
With Easter Brightness

The Spirit of Youth, which comes as the Easter begins to dawn, is putting more than usual life into all kinds of trade.

Women who are a bit particular about the details of their Easter costumes, are anxious to know when the new season's styles of shoes are in.

Well, they're here now—all of them.

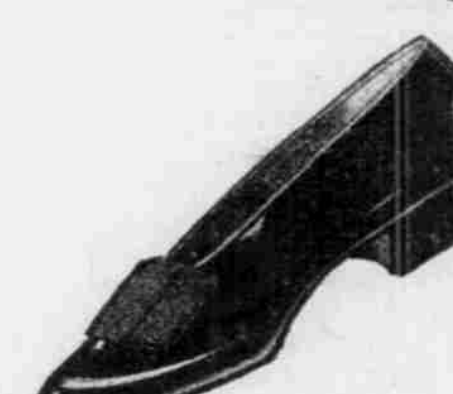

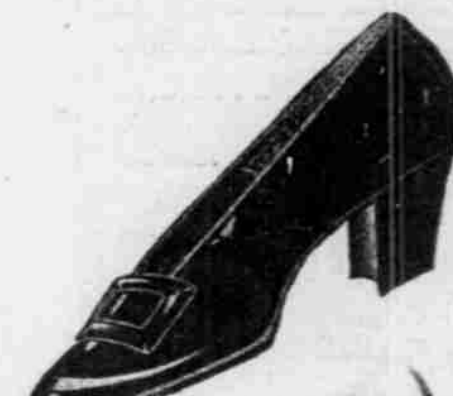

All these new Easter models are the most bewitching and dainty that ever came to town.

There are very few extreme models in the line approved by Dame Fashion this year—perhaps the crusty old lady is growing sensible—and the great majority of the models are just the simple, graceful shapes that are most effective.

There are whites and tans, and blacks, high and low.

We shall be glad to fit you with the new styles you need.

DUNHAM BROTHERS CO.*THEIR SINGING HARD LABOR

People of Star Island, Says Celia Thaxter, Grind Out Sounds With Tremendous Exertion.

Among people of average musical ability there is less singing than there used to be. Nearly everybody enjoys singing, and there was a time when nearly everybody was expected, on occasion, to sing. But from different causes—a more exacting standard, the rivalry of the phonograph, and other reasons—amateur singers are fewer than they were. It is a matter for regret from one point of view, and from another for rejoicing.

In a recently published letter, Celia Thaxter tells how some of the Star Island folks, during her long residence at the Isles of Shoals, used to sing.

"Their singing," she declared, "was truly astonishing, indeed, I might say, exorcising. They go at it precisely as if they were sawing wood, and grind out the sounds with such exertion that their faces become crimson and the perspiration stands in beads on their foreheads."—Youth's Companion.

Worried Hero.

A critic of Wells' novel, "Marriage," finds in the confounding of the hero "the desire to have it all ways; to possess a woman who shall have all the charm and the caprice of the eternal feminine; who shall, by the grossness of her desires and the pettiness of conversation, give him an agreeable sense of superiority, and yet shall, to order, acquire deep spiritual insight when her husband feels he needs it."
